

Singapore date for Dan

CRAIGIE resident and horticulture apprentice Daniel Wheat is flying to Asia to compete in the Singapore Garden Festival at the end of the July.

The 18 year-old won the Ultimate Apprenticeship competition and said he was shocked when he received the news.

"When I got the call from SkillsOne to tell me I'd won the trip to Singapore I was absolutely speechless, honestly, the lady asked if I had any questions but I just couldn't speak," he said.

Mr Wheat said although he had not been working professionally for very long, he had always loved spending time in the garden. Mr Wheat said his time in Singapore would be invaluable.

"I have two years left of my apprenticeship, so to get the chance to see some of the world's best gardeners making their art at the Singapore Garden Festival is amazing," he said.

"I'm so excited about the opportunity to learn from the best gardeners in the region and see all the new ideas that are out there and I know that this is going to open my eyes to how exciting my career will be."

Carmen Allan.

Horticulture apprentice Daniel Wheat is to compete in the Singapore Garden Festival